ORDER RE: DISCOVERY AND PRETRIAL DEADLINES

22 As a preliminary matter, on September 21, 2015, the Court granted Plaintiff's request to 23 allow the parties to meet and confer regarding discovery disputes either by telephone or video 24 conference. Dkt. No. 81. The Court warned the parties it would reinstate the in-person meeting 25 requirement if it determined these meetings are not fruitful. Given the parties' recent filings (see 26 Dkt. Nos. 92, 93), it is clear the meetings have not been fruitful. Therefore, the Court hereby 27 REINSTATES the in-person meet and confer requirement. For any disputes that arise, regardless 28 of who initiates the dispute, the parties shall alternate meetings at counsels' offices. Alternatively, the parties may agree to other locations, as long as they meet in person in a good faith attempt to resolve their disputes.

22 Substantively, there are several discovery disputes now pending (Dkt. No. 92) that could 23 be resolved through in-person meet and confer efforts. Accordingly, the Court DENIES all 24 pending discovery letters WITHOUT PREJUDICE. The Court ORDERS the parties to meet and 25 confer in person on November 2, 2015 at 9:00 a.m. in Courtroom B, 15th Floor, 450 Golden Gate 26 Avenue, San Francisco, California. The parties shall come prepared to meaningfully discuss and 27 resolve their disputes. If unable to resolve the dispute, the parties shall draft revised joint letter(s) 28 at the session in compliance with paragraph 2 of the Standing Order. Thus, the parties are

1 ORDERED to bring any necessary equipment to draft the letter(s) and present it to the Deputy 2 Clerk for electronic filing. If the parties meet and confer in person and resolve their disputes or 3 meet in person and thereafter file a joint letter prior to November 2, they shall jointly request the 4 Court vacate the meet and confer session. Given the drawn out nature of the procedural history in 5 this case, the parties are advised that the Court is unlikely to rule on any discovery disputes based 6 on timeliness objections. The Court urges the parties to focus on the merits of the case and the 7 potential relevance of any requests under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26.

8 Procedurally, as to Defendant's Ex Parte Application to Continue the Discovery Cut-Off
9 and Dispositive Motion Deadlines (Dkt. No. 93), the Court finds a continuance would benefit both 10 parties for the purposes discussed herein. Accordingly, the discovery deadline is CONTINUED to 11 December 9, 2015. The Court VACATES the dispositive motion deadline. The parties shall file 12 an updated Joint Case Management Statement by December 16, 2015.

13 IT IS SO ORDERED.
